(*) This is NOT the work permit, nor the ID card. It is a separate certificate, especially for customs, called "Inschrijvingsbewijs" or "Certificat de residence"

() This can be a certificate from the employer abroad, from a local authority, from a Consulate or Embassy ... as long as it demonstrates clearly that the owner of the household effects has truly and effectively resided outside the EU for 12 consecutive months, plus the dates. It should bear a clear signature, and mention the name and description of the person signing the certificate.
